Magnesium

- OpenDaylight Magnesium version bump is complete and the staging repository has been promoted. The 'stable/magnesium' branch is unlocked and ready for development.
- Self managed projects, TransportRPC, Detnet and Dlux are expected to be released with Magnesium if they can be done within a week 26 Mar 2020
- Release notes reminders to all PTL are being sent
- Downloads page will be updated once SM projects are done or next week, whichever happens first

Aluminium

- Release plans are still pending so a friendly reminder will be sent
- Initial checkpoint on 26 Mar 2020 is still on target

Email List Migration

- Casey Cain will be working on migrating the kernel projects this weekend.
 - Existing Kernel Project mailing lists will be renamed .archive@lists.opendaylight.org and then an alias will be assigned to kernel-dev@lists.opendaylight.org so that mail sent to the original list will be forwarded to kernel-dev
 - kernel-dev will also be set up with a #hashtag with the original list name. You can use this to help identify specific topics.

Infra

- No current issues.
